HURCHILL ASKS £10,000,000 FOR AERO PROGRAM

inister Defends Policy, Points To Danger Of Inactivity

ITS CIVILIAN CONTROL

ays Planes Will Take The Place Of Ships And Soldiers

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 1.—Mr. Church- who, it will be remember- l, still remains the head of the ir Ministry in addition to being olonial Secretary, made a ngthy and interesting statement the House of Commons today, introducing the Air Estimates. mong the steps that were being aken towards building up a horoughly efficient air service ere, he said, courses of instruc- ion at various universities, in- luding the one at Cape Town, nd the prospect of a school in Egypt for the training of highly killed pilots.

The progress made in the past ighteen months had, he said, een far greater than he had an- icipated when he predicted that he completion of his task would ake five years. He described he complicated organism that as being created, every part of hich was interdependent, and eclared that it provided one of he most remarkable systems of ducation and supplying scien- ific knowledge that had ever een produced.

The service, he said, had reach- d a stage of development where change of policy would mean destroying the work that had een done. Additional squadrons were being formed on April 1, making altogether 32 in number.

TELLS ANNUAL COST

Mr. Churchill emphasised the practical impossibility of abandoning the expenditure on naval and military aviation in favor of civil aviation. He pictured Russia and Germany recovering from the effects of the war with great aerial developments. Possibly there would be a war scare here, and frantic efforts would have to be made to re-create the Air Force. He said it was impossible to have an efficient force for less than fifteen or sixteen million annually.

As regards civil aviation, he said he did not feel that he was justified at present in asking for more than the million already provided. In his opinion it was necessary to concentrate on a few routes and services, and make them secure. He regarded the Admiralty's decision to abandon the use of airships as a melancholy one, coming as it did at a time when we had reached almost the first place in the world as regards rigid airships. It was, however, a wise decision. Mr. Churchill mentioned the sale of an airship to America for half a-million. Unless private companies during the next few weeks took over the remaining airships as a free gift, he would, he said, not feel justified in continuing the expenditure on commercial airships.

WOULD REDUCE EXPENSES

He did not doubt that the Air Force, provided it were properly handled, would become an important substitute for soldiers and ships. It could reduce the cost of the garrisons in certain oriental countries, afford real protection in regard to coast defence, and enable particular types of warships to be reduced in number.

In conclusion, Mr. Churchill said he was not opposed to a separate Air Ministry, but while he remained in charge of the service his policy of providing a third arm co-operate continuously with the Army and Navy would be continued.

In the course of the subsequent debate, Major-General Seely, a former Secretary for War, described Mr. Churchill's dual offices as "comic and likely to become tragic." He urged Mr. Churchill to reflect on his past maladministration, and remarked on the irony of the Minister's emphasis on the importance of the cross-Channel route just when the last British service there had ceased.

SENATE INVITES 3 POWER PARLEY ON DISARMAMENT

Hundred Million Added To House Estimate For Navy

DENBY FOR INCREASE

New Secretary Says Nation Needs Big Addition To Fleets

(U. S. Navy Radio through Reuter)

Washington, March 1.—The Senate has unanimously decided to attach an amendment to the Naval Appropriations Bill, requesting the President to call a conference between Great Britain, Japan and the United States, in order to consider the question of naval disarmament.

Washington, March 1.—The Senate has adopted the Naval Appropriations Bill, carrying $496,000,000, which includes $100,000,000 over the amount voted by the House of Representatives.

Senator Borah declared that the cost of British, Russian, French and German naval construction in 1912 was less than half the amount. He asserted that the naval building race between Japan and the United States would result in a similar situation to that created by Germany in 1912.

It is understood that in its sitting today the Senate frankly discussed the relations between America and Japan and the whole field of controversy, including Japan's foreign policy and naval building program. Confidential information was presented regarding the latter point. The possession of the Yap cable and the recent developments in the controversy over Japan's claim to the island were also debated.

Senator Lodge presented a fresh point in reference to the Californian land controversy.

Detroit, Feb. 28.—In the course of his statement of policy (already cabled by Reuter) Mr. Edwin Denby, the new Secretary of the Navy, said: "We are a Power of such extent, with immense Atlantic and Pacific coast lines, and vital interests in the Caribbean and Hawaiian groups, together with the Philippines, which must be held, that a navy equal to any seems justly called for."

GUILDS IN JAPAN DEMAND CUTS IN MILITARY BILLS

Business Organisations To Ask Peers To Revise Program

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Tokio, March 2.—The joint Association of Trade Guilds has passed a resolution, pointing out that Japanese industry and commerce are now suffering from great depression, and that recovery is a matter of great difficulty; yet, despite such unfavorable economic conditions, the Government appears to be budgeting on the basis of the past period of boom.

The resolution condemns the fact that half the appropriations are devoted to armaments, and declares that, on the other hand, the provision is most meagre for the improvement of productive organs, the relief of unemployment and other measures of social advancement. It concludes by asserting that "If the present unduly militaristic budget receives the approval of the Peers, and is carried out by the Government, it will lead the country to ruin."

Osaka, March 2.—A committee meeting of the Joint Association of Japan Trade Guilds has decided to hold a mass meeting on the 11th inst. at Osaka, in the central Public Hall, in order to voice determined opposition to the present budget.

The association is the strongest representative body of commercial and industrial men in Japan.

Since the budget has already passed the Lower House, the Committee has decided to appeal to the House of Peers to revise it.

Britain Would Not Help Japan In War With U.S.

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 1.—Replying to a question in the House of Commons today, as to whether the Anglo-Japanese Treaty arrangements precluded the possibility of assisting Japan in the event of a war between Japan and America, and whether assurances to this effect had been given to the American Government in connection with the latter's consideration of its naval program, Mr. Cecil Harmsworth (Under-Secretary to the Foreign Office) explained that our relations with Japan had been arranged so as not to involve us in the possibility of conflict with the United States.

He added that no official communication to this effect had been made to the United States, who was undoubtedly aware of the true position.

TRAM COMPANY ISSUES BONUS, LIFTS CAPITAL

Outstanding Shares Will Be Increased From £320,000 To £400,000

With a view to bringing the capitalisation of the Shanghai Electric Construction Company more nearly into accord with the value of its undertaking, the directors have decided to recommend the increase of the capital from £320,000 to £400,000. The sum of £80,000 of undivided profit is to be employed in issuing as a bonus 8,000 fully paid shares of £10 each (giving one new share for every four shares now held). The new shares will not rank for dividends payable out of the profits of the year 1920.

Notices of meetings to consider the necessary resolutions will be issued in due course.

The directors have declared a second interim dividend of 6 percent (12/- per share) less income tax (payable on February 1) in respect of the year 1920. The final distribution which it is anticipated will be the same as last year will be announced in the usual course when the accounts for the year are ready for submission.

Engineer Outlines Plans For City Sewer System

Mr. A. P. Wood presided at a meeting held by the Engineering Society of China, yesterday when a paper on "The Present Aspect of Sewage Disposal with Special Reference to Shanghai" was read by Mr. F. G. Helsby.

In the system proposed for the city the sewers will consist for the most part of nine inch concrete pipes. The main sewer will run via The Bund, Whangpoo Road, Nanzing Road and Dixwell Road to the Disposal Site. The size of this latter will increase from 12 inches diameter at the Bund to one foot, six inches by one foot, egg-shaped after it leaves the Central District. The pipes will be laid so as to ensure a self-cleansing velocity to the sewage.

It is proposed to use concrete pipes in the whole system and experiments are now taking place as to the best form of joint to adopt.

Pumping stations will be provided at six localities en route, but, as it is proposed to construct these underground, no public inconvenience will result therefrom. It has been decided to use the Stereophagus type of Centrifugal Pump, the special feature of which is that it does not become choked by the passage of ordinary solids.

The pumps will be automatic in their action and will be electrically driven, the main supply of current being delivered by means of underground feeders from various sub-stations, and an alternative supply to be available from the distribution mains to operate in case of failure by the former.

A large gathering of members and visitors was present and an interesting discussion ensued. A hearty vote of thanks was accorded Mr. Helsby for his paper.

FIRE DAMAGES THE KOREA MARU

Vessel Flooded At Hongkong; Departure May Be Delayed

(Reuter's Pacific Service)

Hongkong, March 2.—The s.s. Korea Maru, belonging to the Toyo Kisen Kaisha, is on fire in the harbor this morning.

The fire which has damaged the Korea Maru broke out in the cargo of hemp in her hold. Its origin cannot be ascertained.

When it was discovered, firemen, assisted by bluejackets wearing smoke helmets, went down into the vessel's hold to discover the seat of the fire, but the former were driven back by the intense heat. Two Government fire floats, with a naval tug have been pouring water into the hold, which is now filled to a depth of six or eight feet.

(Staff Wire to The China Press)

Peking, March 3.—Official announcement has been issued here that the American Government has appointed Gen. George W. Goethals, builder of the Panama Canal, to act as the American representative on the international advisory council of the Whangpoo Conservancy Board. This advisory council is to assemble for the first time in Shanghai in October.

At the meeting of the international advisory council here in October the general results and findings of the Whangpoo Conservancy Board will be submitted. This board came into being fifteen years ago when Shanghai's importance as a world seaport began to grow swiftly and it was realised that some vast comprehensive scheme of harbor improvement would have to be carried out.

In the years that the conservancy board has been carrying forward its work of periodical reports have been issued and several general plans to increase harbor facilities and improve navigation from the sea to Shanghai have been brought forward.

It was a part of the original project to carry out a general survey of all the needs of the port with the final purpose of submitting all findings to an international advisory council made up of representatives of the leading foreign commercial powers with one representative appointed by China.

GERMANY'S PROPOSALS REJECTED; ALLIES PREPARE TO USE FORCE; FOCH NOW ON WAY TO FRONTIER

Lloyd George Halts Von Simons In Middle Of Speech

'NOT DEBATABLE'

Tells Teutons They Evidently Misunderstand Status

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 1.—Mr. Lloyd George opened the Reparations Conference this morning and announced that the Allies had decided to consider first the question of reparations, and secondly disarmament.

Dr. von Simons, the German Foreign Minister, then made a long statement regarding the German counter-proposals. The Foreign Minister said that, after deducting the amount of reparations already paid from the fifty thousand million gold marks, which was the capitalised value of the annuities laid down by the Paris conference, thirty thousand million marks remained which should be raised by international loans. Germany would first issue a loan of eight thousand million marks, to be offered for subscription at a low rate of interest on all international markets, and exempt from the taxes of all the issuing countries, Germany guaranteeing the service and redemption of the bonds.

Furthermore, during the next five years, Germany would pay an annuity of one thousand million gold marks, she was also ready to co-operate in the reconstruction of the devastated areas. The German Government, he added, considered that these proposals fully covered the principle of giving the Allies participation in Germany's economic improvement which they had sought to secure by a tax on German exports.

LLOYD GEORGE STOPS HIM

After Dr. von Simons had presented the counter-proposals he proposed to read a detailed memorandum when Mr. Lloyd George interposed, and said that if Dr. von Simons thought it worth while to put in documents, he could do so, but in view of his general declaration Mr. Lloyd George could not conceal from him the fact that the German Government appeared to be in complete misunderstanding of the realities of the position. The Allies, he said, were already agreed that the proposal made was one they could not examine or discuss as an alternative to the Paris proposal.

The conference then adjourned, after a sitting lasting two hours. The Germans left first, Dr. von Simons looking pale and troubled.

In the afternoon the Allied delegates met at No. 10 Downing Street.

At the outset of his statement, Dr. von Simons declared that the Paris proposals were impracticable, both economically and financially. Germany, he said, was prepared to go to the limit of her possibilities in the event of her economic improvement, but any lesser deduction than that of twenty thousand million marks, which was Germany's estimate of the reparations already paid by her, would necessitate payments exceeding anything that could be reasonably expected from her economic improvement.

Dr. von Simons suggested the appointment of a mixed commission of experts to ascertain the exact value of the reparations already paid.

Since it was impossible, the Foreign Minister proceeded, to raise the total to be paid, after the foregoing deduction, by a single international loan, Germany would begin the financing of a part by issuing a loan of eight thousand million marks, the redemption of which would begin after five years with an interest of one percent, rising one and a half percent annually, Germany granting the holders the security necessary for the service of the loan.

OUTLINES GERMAN PLAN

Germany's payment of the five annuities would be covered by deliveries in kind, based on free intercourse between the German and Allied industries. The value of Germany's work in the reconstruction of the devastated areas should be reckoned against the annuities. The amount of Germany's reparation debt not immediately covered by the international loan should carry interest at five percent, against which interest the five annuities should be reckoned to May 1, 1926. The amount of interest remaining uncovered should be added to the capital account on May 1, 1926, without calculating the compound interest.

All further provisions for the financing of the remaining portion of the reparations debt by Germany should be reserved for future arrangements, especially in regard to the redemption of the bonds, which would not begin before May 1, 1926. Additional instalments would be financed by means of international loans.

The conditions of Article 431 of the Treaty of Versailles, namely, the withdrawal of the troops of occupation, should operate when the payments mentioned above had been made. All payments still to be made by Germany under Paris 8 and 9 of the Treaty of Versailles, (namely the Reparations and Financial Clauses) should be considered as having been made. The provision in regard to the delivery of the proceeds from destroyed war-material, and Germany's obligation to submit to the liquidation and retention of German private property in Allied countries, should also be regarded as having been discharged.

HIS VIEW OF PLEBISCITE

In conclusion, Dr. von Simons said: "In offering the foregoing proposals, it is understood that the plebiscite in Upper Silesia will decide in favor of Germany, and that Upper Silesia will remain German; and also that the commerce of the world will be freed from the existing impediments, and that economic freedom and equality of rights will be established throughout."

London, March 1.—The Allies, and especially the French and Italians, are considerably surprised at ridiculously inadequate German counter-proposals which, when summarised, mean £1,500,000,000, payable in thirty-two years as compared with the Paris decision of £11,300,000,000 payable in forty-two years, plus the tax on German exports. Indeed, M. Briand, the French Premier, expressed the opinion that the acceptance of such an offer would

DAVID Lloyd George, prime minister of Great Britain, who promptly "called" Dr. von Simons, leader of the German delegation to the reparations conference now sitting in London, when the latter suggested that the Allies reduce the indemnity total to about one eighth of the sum fixed by the treaty of Versailles. The British premier told the Germans, in effect, that their proposals were absurd, and asked them to remember their position.

French Military Forces Being Made Ready For Action

WAITING ON U. S.

Naval And Land Demonstrations Already Decided Upon

BELGIANS TO AID

Kiel, Hamburg And Bremen Chosen As Objective Points

(U. S. Navy Radio through Reuter)

Paris, Feb. 28.—French military preparations are in full swing to enforce the penalties in the event of the Germans refusing to fulfil the Allies' reparations demands.

Marshal Foch is expected back from London tomorrow. He will proceed to Mayence, where he will await the decision of the London Conference.

Parliamentary circles here are of opinion that the London Conference will wait for information regarding the text of President Harding's inaugural address before acting. What form this action would take remains a secret, but the Associated Press correspondent is informed that great British naval demonstrations at Kiel, Hamburg and Bremen, and land demonstrations by the French and Belgians have been decided upon.

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 2.—Dr. von Simons' proposals literally staggered the conference. When, after an hour and a-half, the full nature of the amazing scheme he was unfolding became apparent, Mr. Lloyd George sent one of his secretaries round the table to suggest to Dr. von Simons to end his speech. The German Foreign Minister apparently guessed the feelings aroused by his address, for he terminated it abruptly, saying that the important details that he would have liked to enlarge upon would be found in the memoranda which he handed to the Allied delegates.

IMPUDENT OR STUPID

"It is either a case of incredible impudence or else of incredible stupidity," said one of the Allied delegates, at the close of the sitting.

These views are fully endorsed by all this morning's papers, which outshine each other in condemnation of the German proposals. These are described with such adjectives as "absurd," "grotesque," "impossible," "derisory" and "fantastic."

It is felt that Dr. von Simons and his colleagues had a great opportunity of ridding the rather impossible demands arrived at in Paris by presenting an offer which the more moderate minded of the Allies would have been justified in considering. Instead, it is agreed that the German proposals were so utterly inadequate that the opposition of a united front is assured.

'RHINE HORRORS' SPEAKERS MET BY HOOTS IN N.Y.

"Remember The Lusitania And Nurse Cavell" Shouted By Ex-soldiers

(Reuter's Service)

New York, March 1.—A meeting in Maddison Square Garden, organised by the "Rhine Horrors Committee," whose president is a certain von Mach, was subjected to interruptions of "Remember the Lusitania" "Remember Nurse Cavell," by a number of ex-service men who had secured admission to the meeting. Large forces of police, both inside and outside the Garden prevented disturbances. The opponents of the meeting subsequently held a procession and were addressed by the Commander of the American Legion, who said that their action showed that they were "a hundred percent American."

The New York Times says that the meeting was organised by Germans and Sinn Feiners to protest against the employment of French colonial troops on the Rhine.

RUMBLINGS IN RUSSIA, REPORT

Soviet Government Having Trouble In Petrograd And Moscow

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 1.—The frequent recent reports of risings in Russia are supported by detailed telegrams from the frontier.

A message from Helsingfors describes disturbances in Petrograd where strikers, on February 24, stormed the prison and liberated the sailors who were imprisoned there. Thereupon the sailors and workers joined forces against the officers and a mass demonstration was held at which cries were raised of "Down with the Soviets and Communism." The demonstrators then seized the suburb of Vasiliostrov. Forty Communists were killed and 200 arrested. Fighting is still proceeding, and martial law is said to have been proclaimed.

Strikers and workmen on February 26, captured the arsenal and the Kursk and Nizhni-Novgorod railway station.

Britain Protests Korean Killings

(Reuter's Service)

London, March 1.—In the House of Commons today, replying to a question, Mr. Cecil, Harmsworth (Under-Secretary to the Foreign Office) declared that reports had been received, showing that Koreans had been killed and Korean property destroyed at Chientao, and that Japanese troops had engaged in military operations on non-Japanese territories, but that there was no confirmation of the report that special discrimination had been shown against Christian Koreans. The Government felt justified, however, in calling the attention of the Japanese Government to the reports.

SHIP'S OFFICER TAKES STAND IN SHOOTING TRIAL

The charge of attempted murder placed against Waino Victor Warpula, a Finn, by Mr. Jensen, chief officer of the steamer Yui Shun, was up for hearing before Assessor Hutchison and Magistrate Tsang in the Mixed Court yesterday, when the complainant and a Chinese houseboy from the boarding house at 18 Chaoufoong Road where the shooting occurred gave evidence.

Mr. Jensen, a Danish subject, stated that he was in bed at about 12:30 a.m. of February 14 when the accused came upstairs, evidently drunk. He had gone into his room and called for the boy, ordering a bottle of beer and food and using bad language. The accused had then shouted "I am going to shoot," and fired his service rifle. He then said "Come out of your room and I will give you a fair chance," after which he went out on the landing and, after knocking at the door of another room and then at the door of witness' room, used more bad language and fired another shot, and then a third.

Witness thought the second and third shots fired were blank cartridge, but the first and the fourth, which last was fired from defendant's room, were ball cartridge. Before firing the last shot, Mr. Jensen said, Warpula shouted "Jensen, you are in your room, I know you are, and I am going to shoot you." The bullet ripped through a communicating door and struck the wall of witness' room about a foot below the ceiling, showering plaster upon the bed. After this shot accused had said "I will shoot better next time and I will shoot you like a rat when I got a chance."

The complainant said he did not speak to accused at all and said he could only explain the episode by the fact that Warpula was drunk. Under cross-examination by Mr. J. B. Davies, he denied that there was trouble between them over his wife and denied that he had gone into the room of the accused and threatened accused with a knife.

The case was remanded until next Wednesday.

Berlin Students In Street Affrays

(Reuter's Service)

Berlin, March 1.—The police were prepared for disturbances on February 27, but the only outbreak that occurred was confined to a number of students, wearing anti-Semitic and Nationalist emblems, who attacked some Jews walking on the Kurfuerstendamm, and hustled and struck them with sticks. The police restored order within half an hour.

The incident is ominous of the temper of the German Nationalists. This is the first attack that has been made on Jews since the revolution.

COSTA RICANS KILLED

British Premier Calls Teuton Bluff

mean that the Allies were paying their own debts.

The belief that this is not the final word, and that the Germans are willing to make concessions, has not improved the unfavorable impression created, and it is universally realised that further negotiation on this basis is futile.

The Allies have decided to consult their juridical and military advisers tomorrow, and to draft a categorical reply which will be handed to the Germans on Thursday.

The Germans admit that they are disappointed, and already talk of returning home as they are unable to offer more. In the meanwhile, one prominent German delegate informed Reuter's representative that they would not do "anything rash."

London, March 1.—Reuter understands from French quarters in London that the Allied proposals, in the event of Germany's refusing to agree to the Allied terms, include the levying of fifty percent on the sales from Germany in Allied countries; the establishment of special customs which will economically separate the left bank of the Rhine from the rest of Germany; the occupation of the coal ports on the right bank of the Rhine, and, as a last resort, the seizure of the customs.

The French, who have throughout been sceptical of Germany's good faith and were convinced of the necessity of applying coercive measures, appear to take a grim satisfaction in what they regard as the fulfilment of their predictions. The other Allies feel that the gap between the German and the Allies' total is so great that no amount of discussion is likely to bridge the gulf.

DEPLORE PSYCHOLOGY

The papers deplore the German psychology as the despair of other nations, and point out that they lost the war through their failure to understand the mentality of the neutrals and their enemies. Now they look like repeating these fatal blunders.

The experts are now deliberating on the only question at present dividing the Allies, namely, the date on which the sanctions can be enforced. Great Britain and Italy believe that under the Peace Treaty, they cannot be put into operation until May 1.

The Germans were dismayed by the cold and stern reception given to their propositions, and there is reason to believe that their next move will be an effort to have their proposals regarded as purely momentary and subject to improvements as conditions in Germany improve. They evidently entertain the idea that Mr. Lloyd George's statement is not final.

What MILTON is and what it DOES

You have nothing to-day with which to compare Milton. It is not a "cure all," yet in one bottle of Milton you obtain an article which will perform more than 101 every-day services—services for which you to-day buy a dozen or more different preparations. Milton does every one of these thoroughly, reliably, quickly. To be able to perform so many widely varying services, Milton must, of course, be a powerful fluid. It is powerful. But (and this is perhaps its most astonishing feature) it is absolutely harmless, perfectly safe. It can be used freely, or the bottle may be left standing about without the least anxiety. For Milton, although it is so powerful and effective, is non-poisonous: it will not burn or stain the hands or skin; it will not take fire or explode; it is clear and clean; and what little smell it has disappears almost immediately after use. Among the many uses of Milton are—

For preventing cold in the head, influenza and winter ailments.
For destroying bad smells.
For removing stains without injury even to the most delicate fabrics.
For use as a mouth wash, dentifrice and nasal douche.
For freshening the air after tobacco smoke.
For eliminating all vermin.

This sounds almost unbelievable, but a trial very quickly convinces. And isn't it worth trying? If in one bottle you can have a safe, harmless but powerful fluid which can be of service to you in so many different ways, can you afford to be without it? The cost is so small to become convinced. An a bottle lasts a long time—it is economical. Get a bottle to-day. You will be astonished at the results.

SOLD IN 2 SIZES—8 OUNCES and 20 OUNCES — EACH MAKES GALLONS. Take MILTON in your house. Get it of your Chemist or Grocer. If he does not stock MILTON write Probst, Hanbury & Co., Ltd., 10 Nanking Road, Shanghai.

Ask The Squirrel
whether Oak is hard—he knows!

To appreciate to the full the value of Oak for flooring and panelling, it is necessary to know the conditions under which the tree itself comes to maturity.

It is the rule with trees that the faster they grow the poorer the quality of the timber they yield, and vice versa. The Oak is one of the slowest trees to grow, and is consequently the producer of the hardest and most valuable timber. The Oak is not found so much in the sheltered valleys, but on the bleak uplands, where from infancy it is exposed to the vicissitudes of wind and weather.

WE SUPPLY OAK FLOORING AND PLANKS FOR WAINSCOTING, ETC., KILN-DRIED AND GUARANTEED PRIME QUALITY.

We give all orders personal attention. After you have placed your order with us, the flooring will be laid and all work carried out under the personal supervision of a foreign expert of the Company. This supervision costs you nothing, and we prefer to do this for you.

Insist that all lumber for flooring and panelling for interior work bears the "Three Pines" Trade Mark, and the letters "KD" signifying kiln-dried, thus ensuring its perfect quality, and suitability for the severe climatic conditions of China.

LAND ACTION IN BRITISH COURT

Messrs. Davies and Brooke and Mr. J. A. Hayes appeared as defendants before Judge Skinner Turner in the British Supreme Court yesterday in an action brought by Messrs. Chen Sih-chih and Koh Ching-ming asking a declaration of beneficial title to certain land alleged to have been mortgaged to them in consideration of the sum of Tls. 52,000 loaned by them to a merchant named Koh Yue-chow.

Messrs. Davies and Brooke were registered owners of the land, holding it in trust. In their statement of defense they stated themselves as willing to submit to the judgment of the court. Mr. Hayes in November began an action in the Supreme Court asking an injunction to restrain Davies and Brooke from dealing with the beneficial interests of Koh Yue-chow following a judgment in his favor against the Chinese for Tls. 390,000.

The hearing was adjourned after evidence by Chen. Mr. H. T. Wilkinson appeared for the plaintiffs, Mr. H. Lipson Ward for the first defendants and Mr. D. McNeill for Mr. Hayes.

Wife And Sister Brought To Court By Blind Chinese

A blind Chinese goldsmith appeared in the Mixed Court yesterday as complainant in a charge brought against his wife and his sister, who, he alleges, have been terrorising and trying to rob him. Mr. K. E. Newman, appearing for the complainant, one Tsiang Tsing-leu, stated that he himself had released his client from a house in Chengtu Road in which the women had confined him. They had also removed a safe belonging to his client and containing $70,000 worth of securities. The safe is at present in Hongkew police station. The case was remanded until March 11 and the defendants were warned by the Court not to molest the complainant.

First Woman Lawyer Admitted To Practice In The Mixed Court

(Reuter's Service)

Washington, March 1.—The cancellation of the Allied war debts by the United States is favored on economic grounds and as a matter of policy by Mr. Edwin Denby, the new Secretary of the Navy, in the course of an interview with the Tribune. (Reuter's Service)

New York, March 1.—The League of Nations Press Bureau states that the mandates for the former German East Africa, Togoland and the Cameroons reserve the rights of the open door only to members of the League. "Health Better than it has been for Years."

Our portrait is of Mrs. WOODROW, of 56, Robinson Road, Tooting, London, England, whose husband writes:

"My wife has suffered very badly for the past four or five years with Piles, being unable to sleep at night or get any relief during the day. She tried several advertised remedies, none of which did her any good. Some three weeks ago she thought she would try 'Clarke's Blood Mixture,' and before she had taken half a bottle she was better, and by the time she had finished the second bottle she was quite cured. She can now sleep well, eat well, and get about her work, and her general health is better than it has been for years." In a further letter some eight months later Mr. Woodrow writes: "I am pleased to say that since my wife's cure of Piles in September, 1918, there has been no sign of return of the trouble."

CLARKE'S BLOOD MIXTURE, by reason of its remarkable blood purifying properties, can be relied upon to give speedy relief and lasting benefit in cases of Eczema, Bad Legs, Abscesses, Ulcers, Boils, Pimples, Eruptions, Piles, Glandular Swellings, Rheumatism, Sciatica, Gout. FOUR ARE SHOT IN FAMILY FEUD

Woman Killed And Three Others Wounded In Gordon Road District

What was evidently a clan feud between Chinese families flared into tragic proportions last night when four persons were shot—one of them fatally—by two bands of men who entered two houses in the country off Gordon Road.

The men, three in each party, entered the dwellings, which stand near each other, at about 7 o'clock. All were armed with revolvers. In one house a woman was shot dead and a man wounded while in the other a child and another man were wounded.

Detectives are working on the case.

Harding On Anglo-Saxon Unity

New York, Jan. 20.—John A. Stewart, Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Sulgrave Institution, gave out the following letter last night from President-elect Warren G. Harding relative to the work of the institution:

Marion, Ohio.

John A. Stewart, Esq., the Sulgrave Institution, 3,903 Woolworth Building, New York City, N. Y.

Dear Mr. Stewart: The labor of uniting into still closer amity and understanding the English-speaking peoples of the world has a significance of good to all Americans and to nations and races of the world.

Destiny has made it a historical fact that the English-speaking peoples have been the instrument through which civilisation has been flung to the far corners of the globe. I am impressed not so much by the glory that English speaking peoples may take to themselves as by the profound duties that God has thrust upon them—duties of being restrained, tolerant and just. These duties will find their greatest recognition in a united, unshakable friendship and understanding and oneness of purpose—not the exclusion from brotherhood of others, but for a better brotherhood flowing toward others.

I believe that when the wisdom of America is summoned to assist the world in building a workable, as distinguished from a bungling agreement or association for the prevention of war, unity of English-speaking peoples will play no small part not to invade the right or exclude the fellowship of other nations, but to protect and include them. Faithfully yours.

WARREN G. HARDING.

In commenting on the letter Mr. Stewart said that it was interesting "in that it indicates a policy which should be satisfactory to all Americans."

COMPANIONSHIP in a cigarette? Yes, it's in Chesterfields. Three million smokers—less than five years on the market. Two words explain it—"they SATISFY."

But in the end, it is the blend that makes Chesterfields "satisfy." Our expert buyers in the Near East select for Chesterfields, only the finest grade of the four choicest varieties of Turkish tobacco. To these are added the best of mild but full-bodied American leaf.

And the blend—our private formula—cannot be copied. That is why Chesterfields—and only Chesterfields—SATISFY

Carpentier Will Not Fight Anyone Before Bout With Dempsey

London, Dec. 15.—Georges Carpentier, champion heavyweight pugilist of Europe, who left for Paris today after a visit here to witness the bout between Frank Moran, of Pittsburgh, and Joe Beckett, the English heavyweight, on Friday last, declared flatly that he would not fight any one prior to his match with Jack Dempsey, the world's champion. This statement was made in answer to widely published reports that he was about to sign for a match with Moran and that he also would fight Tommy Burns, the former title holder.

Francois Descamps, Carpentier's manager, asserted that Carpentier's contract with Dempsey precluded any fight prior to that with the world's champion. Discussing the arrangements with Dempsey, Carpentier said it did not make the slightest difference to him where he tried for the championship. "Any place in the world suits me," he declared.

TOO PALE TO BE PRETTY

White Cheeks No Longer Fashionable

Do not imagine, all you girls, that being pale adds to your charm. It is no more true than that dark lines under your eyes make them shine more brightly. The passing glance that you notice directed at you is not one of admiration: it is, on the contrary, more likely to be one of sympathy for the weakness revealed by your pallor and dull complexion.

To be pale is no longer the fashion: to be languid is an affliction. To-day the most winsome girl is the one with the pink tinge of health in her cheeks, lips naturally red and eyes sparkling with life. Add to this a quick active step and anyone can tell the girl whose veins are full of the pure, rich blood of health. How different she appears from her ailing sisters, whose aching limbs and weak backs make them pale and dejected! Anaemia is the cause of so much suffering among young women that it cannot be too widely known that Dr. Williams' pink pills have transformed thousands of delicate anaemic invalids into happy healthy women. These pills put new blood into the veins, and this rich red blood refreshes every part of the body, giving strength, rosy cheeks and brightness, in place of weakness, prostrating headaches and a wretched state of half-health.

What this means to great numbers of women of all ages is explained by Miss Edith Cantor, of 65 Roding Road, Clapton, London, who recently stated:—

"When, some time ago, I was attacked by anaemia my appetite failed, and I got very pale. The least exertion left me breathless. I became listless and depressed, and suffered periodically from severe abdominal pains.

"Month after month went by without any improvement. In fact, although I consulted doctors and took their medicine, I gradually grew worse, and became more worried and disheartened.

"Eventually a friend advised me to take Dr. Williams' pink pills, and I decided to try them. After one bottle there was some improvement, so I continued the treatment.

"I soon began to get my appetite back; the listlessness disappeared, and I became less fatigued after exertion. My cheeks lost their pallor, and I felt more vigorous. The periodic pains no longer troubled me and all signs of anaemia vanished.

"Soon my friends said I looked the picture of health. Now I always recommend Dr. Williams' pink pills, for they are splendid."

Now is the time to begin Dr. Williams' pink pills. You can obtain them from any medicine dealer or direct, and post free, one bottle for $1.50, six bottles $8 from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., 96 Szechuen Road, Shanghai.

Children Cry for Fletcher's
CASTORIA

Fletcher's Castoria is particularly a preparation for Infants and Children made agreeable to the taste, acceptable to the stomach and pleasant in its action. It has been in use for over thirty years and has always been one of the most highly esteemed of all cathartic preparations. It has one great advantage over other preparations of its kind in that while it opens the organs readily and completely, it does not have a tendency to produce subsequent constipation so much to be dreaded.

It was only after years of research in the fields of herbs and roots for a combination of purely vegetable matter that would have all the virtues of Castor Oil, without its disagreeable, nauseating properties, especially when used for infants or children, that the formula used in Fletcher's Castoria was found, and which for over 30 years has proven its worth. Try it.

Save the Babies.

Infantry mortality is something frightful. We can hardly realise that of all the children born in civilised countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one quarter die before they reach one year, thirty seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one half before they are fifteen! We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save many of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of narcotic preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphine. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestion, sickness, death. To avoid any possibility of giving your child opiates, or narcotics of any kind, keep Fletcher's Castoria in the house, and Save the Babies.

Hankow Market

The British Chamber of Commerce of Hankow write as follows in their weekly circular dated Hankow, Feb. 23.

FINANCE & MONEY MARKET

Business has been dull during the week, very few bills offering and practically no demand for remittance. Taels T.T. on Shanghai: Chinese market remained steady about 97.1. Foreign Banks would sell @ 97¼—97⅜. Dollars rose from 69.2—69.4 to 69.35—69.55 buyers and sellers respectively. Native Interest dropped from 11 percent to 3 percent.

EXPORTS

A small business has been done in Goatskins with America, but Home buyers are operating very cautiously and only in small quantities. Ther has been some inquiry for Hides to Mediterranean ports, stocks however are scarce, with firm holders. No enquiry for other produce.

IMPORTS

The market opened a little stronger with considerable enquiry for stocks, but so far few transactions have gone through, there being evidently no really weak holders.

Exchange Market

Messrs. Maitland, Fearon and Brand write as follows in their exchange circular for week ending Wednesday, March 2.

Exchange: The London price of Silver at 32½d. shows a drop of 1¼d. since our last circular.

With a good general demand for Gold Remittances and little adequate cover our Exchange rates declined 2½d. to 3/0½ T/T on London and G. $3¼ to G. $59 T/T on America.

A weak tone still prevails in the Silver Markets and Exports from China appear to be still in a stagnant condition. Our Exchange Market closed weak.

Notice to Architects re a competition (with prize) for designs of buildings for a model residential center.

Peking, being the capital city of China with both foreign and Chinese residences, and as the area is so large, all municipal improvements must be built gradually. The Main Hall will seat 2,500 people with large restaurant, club rooms, and library. There will be also parks and tennis courts. The remaining portion of this property will be used for three classes of residential houses of two stories, all facing south, with a garden attached to each. All houses are connected with proper roads and provided with sewage connection, and water supply for modern bath rooms. It is hoped that all architects will submit drawings and designs for this improvement. Prizes are provided for the successful architects. An outline of the conditions is as follows:

PRIZES: 1st $2,000
2nd $1,000
3rd $500

The architect who is awarded the 1st prize shall also be chosen as the architect for the principal building of the central part.

TIME LIMIT.—Instructions to competitors will be given out between the date of advertisement and March 15th by the 3rd Department of the Direction Generale, daily from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. A registration fee of $5 will be charged. WEATHER

Cold weather, improving. Very strong Northerly winds on the Yellow and Eastern Seas. Very variable breezes on the China Sea and at the Philippines.

The German Proposals

THE abrupt halt to which the proceedings of the Reparations Conference in London were brought by Premier Lloyd George's brusque request for the termination of the address which Dr. von Simons, the German Foreign Minister, was making, indicates more clearly than anything else that occurred, the hopelessness of the conference so far as an acceptable agreement is concerned.

The nature of the German counter-proposals, as they were outlined paragraph by paragraph, must have appalled the Allied leaders. Evidently a certain point was reached at which Lloyd George could no longer repress his feelings. He had expected the Germans to give evidence of a willingness to meet their obligations, not to the full extent demanded by the Allies, of course, but sufficient to afford the basis of further parley, something that would have about it the vraisemblance of good faith, of a newly awakened desire to deal fairly, even if that desire were based on knowledge of Allied unity and the power to exact and enforce, if necessary, payment in full of the bill drawn up at Paris.

He had been assured by the French that he was in error. They had told him that he need look for no change among the Germans for the better. They expected the proposals to turn out about the way they did turn out. Therefore they were not surprised. Reading between the lines, the French have all the appearance of being pleased. Their predictions have been fulfilled. It is just what they told the British would happen.

But if they were pleased by the fulfilment of their predictions, they certainly were even more pleased by the angered outburst of Lloyd George. It is just the mental attitude they have been trying to work him up to, and incidentally, the Germans have now accomplished for them what they were unable to accomplish for themselves. The whole British press exhibits a sense of having been outraged, of having had all its finer feelings roughed and trampled upon. For the British have been looking at the reparations problem from a cooler standpoint than that of the French. They wanted to do the fair thing by France and they also wanted to be reasonable with Germany.

And now they find that the Germans remain as unreasonable as ever they were during the negotiations prior to the war and during the war itself. They exhibit the same complete lack of understanding of other peoples. In 1917, when they were winning, the Kaiser and the Reichstag figured that they would demand a cash indemnity of five hundred billion gold marks from the Allies; that is, roughly, (gold) $125,000,000,000, or about £30,000,000,000. The Allies are asking £11,500,000,000, and Germany has the effrontery to offer £1,500,000,000, or about one-twentieth of the sum she was planning to make the Allies pay. No wonder Lloyd George exploded. No wonder we now face army and navy demonstrations on a large scale against Germany. The Allies as victors cannot swallow such insults. Nor will they.

BASKEE !
By DOMINO

Whether the weather be wet,
Or whether the weather be hot
We've got to weather the weather,
Whether we like it or not.

And the weather that is being doled out to us locally wants a good deal of weathering believe me.

Here was I, on Saturday and Sunday last, thawing to such an extent, that, when Monday came with the mercury stretching itself from one end of the thermometer to the other here was I feeling like a spring poet and vainly endeavoring to write a sonnet on:

"Where does Winter go in Winter time?"

But winter didn't travel very far—did it? It was just around the corner. I'm not quite sure what the clerk of the weather is playing at. But if he continues in his rapid movements, his excesses should be brought to the notice of the authorities—when a fine of a few fine days might well be imposed, with a remark or so to the effect that if it happens again we place a furnace under the mercury and keep the barometer at "Fine."

Of course we were all told during the fine spell that we were going to suffer for it. Why will people spoil even transient pleasures by gloomy anticipations?

We were told that the mild weather meant a frost to follow, and that when the next thaw came it would mean the plumber. It is all very well singing the song "I'm a plumber" and enjoying it, but when the Whangpoo begins to disport itself about the bathroom from numerous points, other than the tap, then it boots you nothing to sing "I'm a plumber." You have to be one.

Pass the lyre.

THE PLUMBER

I once required a plumber at my residence to "plumb."
I waited long and eagerly and yet he didn't come,
At last the long expected came; I said my haste was great,
And then the plumber told me he had better fetch his mate.
Until the shades of evening fell continued they to "plumber."
And one man smashed my Chinese vase, the other man his thumb;
Then they departed, telling me the job had not been long,
Because so far as they could see "there wasn't nothin' wrong."

A DOG'S LIFE

There is no truce in the Kingdom of Dogs. The spirit of good will does not modify them. Birds in their little nests agree. But the canine passengers on the pathway lack that inclination.

"Dogs delight to bark and bite."

The facts explain a letter that appeared in one of the Irish papers a little while ago, lamenting "the frequency of dog fights in streets."

If it be the nature of dogs to quarrel why should men object? We must not expect the impossible. Excessive peacefulness was demanded by the old gentleman who brought back to the dog-fancier the terrier certified by the latter as having a gentle disposition.

"He wants to bite the head off every dog he meets, I've been swindled" declared the purchaser. The dog-fancier retorted:

"You shouldn't keep dogs at all, mister. The animals you ought to keep with your temperament are silk-worms."

The Rhyming Optimist

If you have to be Sorry

BY ALINE MICHAELIS

There are days when the sunshine looks paler, when the smiles of one's friends seem too cold, when bills come from the landlord and tailor and you feel pretty grummy and old. Times like this—everything, town or city—looks dismally, dolefully blue; you must needs find some person to pity, but—don't let that fellow be you! If you think you'd feel better to whimper and mourn o'er the woes of this sphere, it is time then to run out and rubber for somebody worth every tear. Find somebody old and foresaken, find one who has put hope away or someone whose love has been taken and try putting cheer in their day. When each hour life grows darker and duller, and nothing seems jolly or new; when your world is a gem that's off color, find someone who's worse off than you! You may fancy your lot's getting harder if the landlord raised on your rent; find a chap with no bread in his larder, and you'll feel that you should be content. For, someway your own little troubles will fade like the gray morning mist, they will vanish away just like bubbles when you go where real sorrows exist. Days when everything looks cheap and shoddy, and the world is an indigo blue, and you just have to pity somebody, be sure that that chap isn't you!

Correspondence

Mrs. Neville-Rolfe's Plan

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Sir: It is interesting to read in your issue of today what a stranger considers necessary to promote the development and social well being of Shanghai.

As Mrs. Neville-Rolfe's scheme was forwarded to you by the Moral Welfare Committee I presume it is seconded by that body and they sent it to you for the purposes of publicity.

May I point out that the whole of her objects as laid down in the scheme are embrased by the Civic League which is at present working hard to wake the public of Shanghai to a civic sense and to the possibility of improving local conditions?

It is a beautiful scheme, but although not a pessimist, one hardly sees it in operation in Shanghai for the next twenty years, by which time it is probable that the stern logic of facts will have convinced the Shanghai public of the need of united social action.

However, it is not my purpose to criticise the scheme, merely to point out that if the Moral Welfare Committee wishes to put the scheme into execution, it would be well to get into touch with the Civic League and not to work apart, as overlapping of various organisations with the same aims produces much waste of valuable time and effort.

Are you not unduly anxious about the psychologist needed to complete the personnel of the Education Committee?

The intense cerebration of the gentlemen who wrote to one of your contemporaries a few months ago, about visiting tigers and peripatetic trees in Yates Road and persisted in the objective facts of these phenomena, indicates that they at any rate could analyse unusual mental processes; surely one of them might be prevailed upon to undertake the onerous duties of psychologist to the Educational Committee, the more so as there happens to be a girls' school in Yates Road. I remain, Sir, etc.

W. ROBBINS,
Hon. Sec. Civic League.

American Postal Agency

Editor, THE CHINA PRESS

Sir: As an American who lives in North China and is in Shanghai after a lengthy absence may I protest against the practice of the American Postal Agency with respect to the selling of stamps. I suppose this is no new subject to you, but it is an annoyance fresh to me.

I went into the post office yesterday to register a letter: I waited for the whole routine to be completed and then was told to hand out twelve cents in American money: I have not seen twelve cents in American money for four years: I was then told to go shopping about the exchange shops.

It has been borne in on me every time I come to Shanghai that the principle on which the American Postal Agency operates is that the American community exists for the convenience of the post office and not the post office for the accommodation of the American community.

I understand the exchange difficulties of the post office. I was one who did not complain about the two-for-one arrangement two years ago. But now that the exchange goes the other way, we are submitted to a double inconvenience.

Is there any way that the post office can be run efficiently and yet accommodate Americans? If there is not, is there any reason why it should continue to be maintained?

AMERICAN.

Goods Yielded By Germany

A detailed list of the various deliveries made by Germany to the Allies in execution of the Treaty of Versailles during the first year it was in force has just been issued by the Reparations Commission. The deliveries were made on the reparations account up to Dec. 31. The chief item is coal, amounting in all to 17,818,840 tons. Next in importance on the list are dyestuffs, of which 10,787,827 kilos were delivered. (A kilo is about 2 and one-fifth pounds.)

Other deliveries were: Steamers, sailing vessels and fishing boats, 2,054,729 tons; inland navigation materials, 38,730 tons; livestock, 360,176 head; seed, 6,802,588 kilos; ammonium sulphate, 19,000 tons; pharmaceutical products, 57,823 kilos; rolling stock, 4,571; trucks, 129,555; motor lorries, 5,000; fixed railway materials, 140,000 tons; agricultural machinery, 131,505.

In addition to the deliveries placed to her credit, Article 238 of the treaty provides that Germany shall effect restitution of objects of every nature and securities and cash taken away, seized or sequestrated.

The records for the year show the following deliveries under this article: To France, agricultural machinery, 13,546 machines; industrial machinery, 184,161 tons; locomotives, 13; trucks, 6,031.

To Belgium: Agricultural machinery, 14 machines; industrial machinery, 87,046 tons; locomotives, 394; trucks, 12,897.

There has also been restora- certain securities and a quantity of furniture and objects of art, but no figures are given.

The list contains various cables which have been delivered and which have not yet been allocated by the expert conference at Washington, to which the work was intrusted. In all there are seventeen cables in various parts of the world.

The commission points out that while valuations have been reached on most of these, certain questions of principal remain undetermined. It is also explained that the figures recently published of German payments against the 20,000,000,000 gold marks under Article 235 of the treaty are much greater than the real figures.

The allocation by the Reparations Commission of Germany's deliveries shows that France received the largest share, with Belgium second and Italy third. The United States appears on the list with two items—dyestuffs of which she received 1,300,143 kilos, and lorries, numbering 1,314.

Great Britain received 1,477,839 gross tons of shipping and 3,113,802 kilos of dyestuffs and 1,243 lorries. England did not share in any of the other deliveries.

France received 14,210,582 tons of coal. Italy 1,618,534 tion in other things, including tons, Belgium 1,401,626 tons and Luxemburg 588,098 tons.

France received 3,172,632 kilos of dyestuffs; Italy 1,760,810; Belgium, 1,190,375; Japan, 250,062.

The only other allocations to Japan were 5,855 kilos of pharmaceutical products and 28,678 gross tons of shipping.

France received 166,924 gross tons of ships; Italy, 124,901; Belgium, 15,831 tons.

France and Belgium shared all livestock deliveries, the former received 207,943 head and the latter 152,233.

With the exception of 200 kilos to Italy, France and Belgium also received all the seed, France getting 6,501,310 kilos and Belgium 301,078 kilos. France also obtained 109,932 agricultural machines and tools, and Belgium 21,573, constituting the total delivered. France received 2,653 locomotives, and Belgium 1,918. The 19,000 tons of ammonium sulphate went to France.

New Spring Millinery

BY RITA STUYVESANT

The first hats for the new season are truly delightful, with their fresh, crisp silks and satins, and lovely Spring flowers. Every day new models are being displayed, and clever adaptations of imported creations are being fashioned to suit individual needs. Smart hats for town wear run rival to exquisite millinery designed for the warm southlands, where the lure of palm trees and golden sands will be attracting many for the next few months.

Quite in harmony with the budding springtime are the hats of jadegreen now being featured so extensively in the better shops. One beautiful model of georgette and taffeta assumes a rather large, drooping shape and is covered with taffeta, tightly drawn over the top. The underside of the hat is aptly draped, and quaint old-time flowers nestle close to the crown. A great sash of georgette is looped about the top and flutters gayly to the shoulder.

Bobbie And His Pa

BY WILLIAM F. KIRK

Our teecher asked us to rite a essay about Hard Times and Good Times.

That is a vary hard subjeck for kids, Hard Times, sed Pa. Yure teecher must think you have been taiking it too eesy lately, sed Pa, if she is loding work onto you like that. I mite find it hard to rite a essay on that subjeck myself, sed Pa, and I am an old timer at the riteing game.

Our teecher sed our pairents cud help us, I sed to Pa. She sed we shud ask our mothers beekaus thay knew moar about hard times than our fathers, beekaus poverty is always felt moast in the kitchen, she sed.

Yure teecher must think that she is a wise gink, sed Pa.

She is a vary smart lady, I sed. Will you help me rite my essay, or shall I ask Ma.

I will help you, of course, sed Pa, I know moar about riteing essays than yure deer mother does, naterally, sed Pa, as that is my game. Of course I will help you, sed Pa. Git yure pencil and paiper, sed Pa. and then I got a pencial and paiper and Pa sed to start in like this:

The differns between hard times and good times, sed Pa, is marked by the dollar mark, wich is a letter S with two lines thru it. This mark, sed Pa, is the moast important mark in the whole wurld. Sum peepul may say that it isent, but the fack reemains, sed Pa, that the littel old S with the two lines thru it is the mark which rules the wurld.

Men, wimmen and children are judged by that mark, sed Pa. Frends are made and lost on account of that mark. It is the root of all evil and it is back of much that is good. It is the mark that pops up in front of a mother's eyes wen a yung gent brings her dauter hoam from the first dance. It is the mark wich maiks a man a good candidate for offis, sed Pa. If he has plenty of $ dollar marks around him, sed Pa, the party will seek him, or, as the wise old boys say, the party cums seeking the man.

A gent is always O. K. in this wurld, sed Pa, if a lot of little $ marks is following in the air around him wen he walks down the street or wen he sets in church.

Surely it doesnt maik any difference in church, sed Ma.

It shuddent, sed Pa, but surely it does. The gent with the big bankroll can always catch the preacher's eye during a sermon, sed Pa, wile the little gink with the last year's cote and the old shoes hardly evver gits a bubbling smile from the preacher, sed Pa.

That is foolish talk, sed Ma. My unkel was a preacher and he loved the poor of his flock.

Maybe he loved the poor, sed Pa, but he ate his dinners with the rich, dident he? sed Pa.

The dollar mark ($) doesnt matter so much in this wurld as yon wud have Bobbie beleeve, sed Ma.

All rite, sed Pa, you can rite Bobbie's essay for him and I will read the paper. But Ma dident help me rite the essay, so I have to use this here for my essay on Hard Times and Good Times.

Unique Chinese Fruits

Some of the Chinese fruits, cunningly coaxed and lovingly cherished through many centuries, are said by experts to be delicious. There is an orange grown in China that is reported to surpass in sweetness and delicacy any of the oranges to which the people of Europe or of America are accustomed; and it may be grown in places where the temperature falls 20 degrees below the freezing point. There is also a peach unlike anything to which the West is accustomed, and a Winter muskmelon that will appeal irresistibly to the European palate.

This melon is at its best in December and January. There are many other good things in China to which Europeans will doubtless be introduced in time. Of some of the choice Chinese dishes, such as bird's nest soup and the like, there are better things in reserve. The fruits are described as surpassing those of any other country.—New York Journal.
